

LAUNCHING OF MARADIVA ART GALLERY & 2ND EDITION OF A.I.R.

Live painting by Professor Mai Hongjun

For the second edition of our A.I.R. (Artist in Residence) project, Maradiva welcomed renowned Chinese artist Professor Mai Hongjun. The exhibition themed as “The Story of the East” was held on the 14th February and coincided with the launch of Maradiva Art Gallery in partnership with Adamah Fine Arts.

On this evening, the guests discovered remarkable artworks of international artists like Corby, Garibay, Yves Cass, among others and traditional Chinese paintings of Professor Mai who also did a live painting. Chinese traditional music and face changing performance also made the highlights of this event. The earnings from the sale of his first painting will be donated to “Association Dominique Savio”.

For more info, please visit <http://www.actogether.mu/fr/trouver-une-ong/association-dominique-savio>

A glimpse of the evening: click here

A.I.R. project will be back in April 2018.

Jocelyn Kwok, CEO of AHRIM & Honourable Anil Gayan, Minister of Tourism & Leisure

Luo Yizhang, Honourable Prithvirajsing Roopun, Minister of Arts & Culture, Xie Shibo, First secretary of the Embassy of the People's Republic of China & Professor Mai Hongjun

Raj Bhujohory, Chairman of MTPA

Professor Mai & family with Mr Ramdane & family

Sachin Sagar

Kamal Taposeea

Rishi Toofany, Julie Patteta, Martina Pascual & Valérie Cattiau

Serge Patteta, CEO of Adamah Fine Arts & Arnaud Martin, CEO of MFDC

Ishrat & Sharyne Boodoo, Bluefish

Mr & Mrs Sacha Bouic

Eric Grenouillaud, Managing Director of Bluefrog

Face-changing artist

Media Enquiries
Please contact the Marketing Department on communication@maradiva.com